

Harry J. Kangis

Mr. Kangis has been an independent strategy consultant and OGSP® facilitator since 2001, assisting businesses and not-for-profit organizations in building clearer and more focused strategic plans. He is also a Partner with PrimeGenesis LLC®, a leading executive on-boarding and transition acceleration firm that works with senior executives to get better results in their first 100 days on the job.

Mr. Kangis began his career with The Procter & Gamble Company in 1975, and for over 20 years worked to build category leaders, such as Tide®, Ivory Liquid®, Cascade®, NyQuil®, Vicks®, and Folgers®. He led P&G's acquisition of the Millstone® gourmet coffee business, tripling Millstone's sales over the next 5 years as its President. During the 1980's, Mr. Kangis also served as a senior executive for Home Entertainment Network, Kenner® Toys, and Nutrition Technology Corporation.

Mr. Kangis is a founder and the General Manager of One Page Solutions® LLC. He has practical experience with OGSP® and the One Page Strategy® in over 50 organizations and 200 completed OGSP's, delivering tangible results from OGSP's clarity, focus and ease of deployment. At P&G, Mr. Kangis also led worldwide task forces on Team Effectiveness and Cycle Time Reduction.

Mr. Kangis has a BA from Williams College and an MBA from UPenn's Wharton School. A life-long conservationist, Mr. Kangis is Board Chair of The Nature Conservancy's Ohio Chapter, chairman of TNC's national Brand Marketing Advisory Group, and a long-time strategy advisor to TNC's worldwide Executive Team. He is also a Vice-Chair of the Board of Directors of Episcopal Retirement Homes, Inc of Ohio.

Harry is married to Dr. Julia Hawgood, a retired clinical psychologist (pictured above with their five grand children). They are currently on a quest to hike in and photograph all 57 of the US Scenic National Parks. They have two grown children and have lived together in Cincinnati, Ohio for over 30 years.
